

JENNA GOMEZ

WHO SHE IS WHAT SHE SEES

Jenna is eight years old and has been observing her world like this since she was three:

*"I hear a rattlesnake and it sounds like a maracas.
I see the trees are singing.
The cars are dancing.
I'm listening to the world music and wiggling my fingers."*

This is her first gallery exhibit and the work (play) is from 2011 and 2012.
Jenna does not appear to distinguish between work, play and expressing herself.
